Introduction

Missouriana: A Resource Guide is an extensive list of books about Missouri (many by Missouri authors), as well as additional resources available to students, teachers, librarians and others interested in learning more about Missouri. It contains both fiction and non-fiction books for young people suitable for recreational reading or student assignments. It is certainly not all-inclusive, and the grade levels noted are suggested guides only. Educators should preview these materials to determine their appropriateness for particular ages or classes. This list may be reproduced for your use.

This publication was prepared by a joint committee of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the Missouri State Library. It is a revision of an earlier Missouriana for the Young (Missouri State Library, 1974) compiled by Kay Davis, professional materials specialist. The committee included:

Patt Behler
Childrens and Young Adults' Services
Missouri State Library

Judith Grimes
Publications Editor
Dept. of Elementary & Secondary Education

Warren H. Solomon
Director of Curriculum Dissemination
Division of Instruction
Dept. of Elementary & Secondary Education

A special tribute is given to Alice Irene Fitzgerald, professor emeritus of education, at the University of Missouri-Columbia, for her support of this project. The committee has used her publication, Missouri's Literary Heritage for Children and Youth: An Annotated Bibliography of Books about Missouri (University of Missouri Press, 1981), as a primary resource in preparing this list. No Missouri library collection should be without this title, and readers are referred to her book as a rich source of information on books about Missouri. An asterisk and number placed by some of the listings in the present publication indicates the entry number in Fitzgerald's book where a more extensive and comprehensive review will be found.

Also assisting with this project were: Virginia Ryan, Children's and Young Adults' Services, Missouri State Library; Gina Millsap, Daniel Boone Regional Library, Columbia; Jim Morris and Jo Albers, Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

Permission for reproduction of illustration on page 32 was granted by University of Missouri Press, Columbia. Sketches of "Famous Missourians," the Capitol and the Governor's Mansion were done by R.C. Holmes, Missouri Division of Tourism.
